In 1964, a chance constructed for our family at twelve in number: 8 boys, girls, and mother and Dad to visit an overseas country, Costa Rica. We lived in Nicoya, a distant city at the Nicoyan Peninsula, the place my husband proficient area people to function and retain road-building equipment. Our relatives not just coped with residing there, yet thrived in the course of these years. A few shut calls we encountered took our breath 10 Ambassadors to Costa Rica away. The sorrow we felt on the lack of our new female descendant used to be balanced via the affection proven us by means of the neighborhood families. Our kids have been the real ambassadors to Costa Rica: they introduced scholars domestic who needed to profit English, they introduced lecturers who wanted letters from neighbors translated, they usually have been my interpreters, for they realized Spanish extra speedy than I. In scripting this book, I fell in love with my 10 Ambassadors to Costa Rica husband 10 Ambassadors to Costa Rica in all places again: an excellent experience.
