inspired by way of contemporary movement, i eventually made up our minds to complete this book. Rewarding, to assert little or no of its effect to me personally, and its impression at the American Public. the 1st a number of chapters are so painful to learn if one holds even an oz of empathy for the indigenous tribes of this continent, really lower than what i'm going to easily name the "jurisdiction", or care, of the ever-powerful usa Government. learn it, then www.honorthetreaties.org. Just a few, brief rates to share, even supposing each one bankruptcy heading is full of the knowledge of Indian Way, and the remainder of pages full of depth and insight. "Our major challenge In the Spirit of Crazy Horse is to put out of your mind the past, aid advertise humans to improve--don't name one other guy a thief or rapist. we do not believe the monks here, who will not bury a bootlegger; their activity is to wish for them, to not refuse them." strikes Camp raised his eyes to mine. "One of those days, every little thing will turn; it is sluggish yet it really is coming. For the final years, right here in Oglala, we've got had solar dances again. we need to re-educate the folk to Indian way: do not select this desk over this man"--he rapped the table--"because you can also make one other desk yet you can't make this guy again. The white guy will learn, too, they say, yet we are not imagined to train him every little thing at In the Spirit of Crazy Horse once, he needs to redevelop in a typical way." ~ Sam strikes Camp, p. 528(While campaigning in South Dakota, Ronald Reagan had said, "We will honor all treaties"; instead, the Reagan administration, whereas doing its most sensible to prop up the nuclear and armaments In the Spirit of Crazy Horse industries, had eradicated over 400 jobs at the job-poor Pine Ridge Reservation and gutted the investment for social companies resembling the problem heart for would-be suicides. via the top of Reagan's first yr in office, the cutbacks in social providers and suggestions programs--very critical for all bad humans in America--were envisioned to be ten instances as critical in Indian state as they have been elsewhere, with worse to come.) ~ Peter Mathiessen, p. 531 We didn't ask you white males to return here. the nice Spirit gave us this state as a home. You had yours. We didn't intervene with you. the nice Spirit gave us lots of land to reside on, and buffalo, deer, antelope, In the Spirit of Crazy Horse and different game. yet you will have come here; you take my land from me; you're killing off our game, so it truly is difficult for us to live. Now, you let us know to paintings for a living, however the nice Spirit didn't make us to work, yet to stay by way of hunting. You white males can paintings if you would like to. we don't intrude with you, and back you say, why do you no longer turn into civilized? we don't wish your civilization! we might stay as our fathers did, and their fathers sooner than them. ~ loopy Horse (Lakota) p. iv "What does this Mount Rushmore suggest to us Indians?" requested John fireplace Lame Deer. "It implies that those enormous white faces are telling us, "First we gave you Indians a treaty you could continue those Black Hills forever, so long as the solar may shine, in trade for the entire Dakotas, Wyoming and Montana. Then we discovered the gold and took this final piece of land, simply because we have been stronger, and there have been extra people than there have been of you, and since we had cannons and Gatling guns, when you hadn't even stepped forward a ways adequate to make a metal knife. And if you happen to didn't wish to leave, we wiped you out, and people of you who survived we wear reservations. after which we took the gold out, one billion bucks, and we are not via yet. and since we adore the vacationer dollars, too, we've made your sacred Black Hills into one immense Disneyland. And once we did all this we carved up this mountain, the residing position of your spirits, and positioned our In the Spirit of Crazy Horse 4 glowing white faces here. we're the conquerors." . . . One man's shrine is one other man's cemetery, other than that now a number of white fogeys also are getting uninterested in having to examine this giant paperweight curio. we won't break out from it. you may make a beautiful mountain right into a nice paperweight, yet are you able to make it right into a wild, common mountain again? i don't believe you've got the knowledge for that. . . . might be it isn't too overdue to place an elevator below this complete shrine of democracy--press a button and the complete monument disappears. And as soon as a week--say, each Sunday from 9 to eleven--you press the button back and people 4 heads arise back with the track going complete blast. the blokes who obtained an astronaut at the moon will be capable of do that a lot for us Indians, artists and nature lovers. ~ John fireplace Lame Deer, pp. xxxix-xl
