Deyan Sudjic

De Hitler y sus delirios de grandeza arquitectónicos materializados por Albert Speer a Tony Blair La arquitectura del poder y su Cúpula del Milenio, tan grandilocuente como de dudosa utilidad; de Saddam Hussein y sus fatuos palacios y mezquitas a Mitterrand y su obsesión por pasar a l. a. posteridad con faraónicos edificios públicos, pasando por Stalin, Mussolini, el wealthy person Rockefeller, los museos más preocupados por el continente que por el contenido, los parques temáticos con ínfulas de modernidad arquitectónica o las grandes marcas de moda que convierten sus selectas y ostentosas tiendas en escaparates de su prestigio... En todos los casos, el poder –político, económico, social, cultural- busca ser representado arquitectónicamente de forma grandilocuente, innovadora, perdurable... Este libro es una indagación valiente y demoledora de l. a. obsesión arquitectónica de presidentes, La arquitectura del poder primeros ministros, alcaldes, dictadores, magnates y La arquitectura del poder otros personajes poderosos y en el endiosamiento de los arquitectos que se han puesto a su servicio. El resultado es una mirada ácida, rebosante de anécdotas entre bambalinas, sobre l. a. arquitectura convertida en representación del poder y arma propagandística, y una reflexión crítica y polémica sobre las relaciones –interesadas, turbias, tensas- entre los arquitectos y los poderosos lo largo del convulso siglo XX, y sobre los excesos de los angeles arquitectura moderna, representada por popes como Le Corbusier, Albert Speer, Philip Johnson, Norman Foster, Frank Gehry, Yung Ho Chang, Arata Isozaki, ReemKoolhaas, Daniel Libeskind...

this isn't a faultless book. Given its topic matter, it was once ironic La arquitectura del poder that i may figure no coherent structure, by way of an issue or maybe simply an method of facing the topic that started in a single position and improved via a discernable path to a climax. The publication reads extra like a set of loosely hooked up journal features, which probably is just not a shock given Sudjic's background because the Editor of structure journal Domus. however it simply did not matter. i discovered the subject itself so interesting, and Sudjic's writing so unique - lively, scathing, and every now and then outright hilarious - that i used to be as gripped through TEC La arquitectura del poder as i'm by way of the first-class undercover agent mystery i have due to the fact that moved on to.I might be looking extra from Mr Sudjic.
