Alan Hall

The North York Moors stretch from the hovering cliffs above On Foot in the North York Moors Robin Hood's Bay to the emerging escarpment of the Cleveland Hills and are bounded through the Vales of Mowbray, York and Pickering. In response to vast exploration of the nationwide Park's 1200-mile community of footpaths, this ebook provides 35 walks which surround ridge, dale, coast, crag, abbey and wildlife. The outline of every direction is followed through insights into earlier visitors, together with pilgrims to the nice abbeys, traders, drovers, soldiers, smugglers, miners, and nice writers.
