String Quartets, Opp. 42, 50 and 54

Joseph Haydn

Over a 50-year period, Haydn composed greater than eighty string quartets that includes a variety and diversity of structural invention surpassed simply through Beethoven's works. During this volume, the composer's mastery of the shape is strikingly evident, relatively within the six well known and much-recorded "Prussian Quartets." This quantity comprises the whole rankings of: Op. 42, in D minor (composed in 1785) Op. 50, Nos. 1–6 ("Prussian Quartets," composed in 1787 and devoted to the Prussian King Friederich Wilhelm II) Op. 54, Nos. 1–3 (First set of "Tost Quartets" composed c.1788 and devoted to the service provider Johann Tost) Large, readable noteheads, considerable margins for notations, opaque paper and everlasting binding make this a primary addition to track libraries and musicians' repertoires.
