This publication is a comparative research of the kin novel as a particular literary genre. It concentrates on 3 prototypical kinfolk novels, the Chinese language trilogy, The Turbulent Trilogy (1906-1940) via Pa Chin; the British trilogy, The Forsyte Saga (1906-1921) by means of John Galsworthy; and the French novel, Les Thibault (1922-1940) via Roger Martin du Gard. The booklet argues for the institution of a brand new general category, the kin Novel as a sub-genre of the novel. It describes the 4 designated characteristics; its realism and use of The Family Novel: Toward a Generic Definition chronology; its feel of formality and community; the centrality of relatives conflict; and its precise form.
