The Tribe by Jean-Michel Mension

Jean-Michel Mension

among 1952 and 1954, Jean-Michel Mension haunted Saint-Germain-des-Prés as a member of the mythical Letterist International, direct progenitor of the Situationist International. In a chain of conversations, Mension recounts this very specific vie de bohème whiled away with man Debord and a rogue's gallery of demanding drinkers and thinkers. The wealthy iconography contains lots of Ed van der Elsken's celebrated pictures of "the tribe" and a trove of Letterist leaflets and posters. A rare, vibrant travel of a second milieu slightly spotted on the time by means of the travelers flocking to Saint-Germain for a glimpse of Sartre & Co. Jean-Michel Mension (b. 1934) later joined the Communist celebration and took part within the Ligue Communiste.
