The Velvet Glove: The Velvet Glove: Paternalism and Conflict in Gender, Class, and Race Relations Paternalism and Conflict in Gender, Class, and Race Relations

Mary R. Jackman

This landmark research analyzes and compares the ideologies that increase between unequal social groups. Mary Jackman employs a distinct nationwide survey to enquire all 3 of the main well-known kinfolk of inequality within the United States: gender, class, and race. the place different students have emphasised clash because the logo of intergroup oppression, Jackman proposes a idea during which either dominant and subordinate teams maneuver to prevent open hostility as they attempt to manage assets in the confines in their mutual relationship. Hostility, Jackman issues out, creates resistance in a relationship. Dominant teams accordingly try and preempt The Velvet Glove: Paternalism and Conflict in Gender, Class, and Race Relations using strength by means of following a velvet-glove technique of "sweet persuasion." they're drawn specially to the ideological mildew of paternalism, during which the coercion of subordinates is grounded in love instead of hate. Dominant-group individuals pronounce authoritatively at the wishes and welfare of all after which profess to "provide" for these needs. Love, affection, and compliment are provided to subordinates on strict that they agree to the phrases of the unequal relationship. no matter if in the house or The Velvet Glove: Paternalism and Conflict in Gender, Class, and Race Relations within the area of sophistication or race relations, paternalism wraps regulate and authority in an ideological cocoon during which discriminatory activities are outlined as benevolent and affection is made contingent on compliance. Jackman's emphasis at the perform of coercive love in race, class, and gender kin is certain to generate controversy and additional research. Sociologists, psychologists, political scientists, and somebody attracted to workforce ideology will locate the following a provocative problem to traditional views.

"... a paternalistic relationship, the place love and coercion are insidiously intertwined."
