Little Fox is excited by what lies at the What Lies on the Other Side? different aspect of the river. however the older animals inform scary stories of dreadful witches and trolls. but if Little Fox spots Raccoon at the a long way shore, he discovers that there are both scary tales in regards to the hazards on What Lies on the Other Side? his personal side. the 2 new neighbors quickly notice that delights, and never dangers, are on each side of the What Lies on the Other Side? river. A lighthearted lesson in regards to the foolhardiness of hearing rumors.

extra stories (and no fluff) at the web publication <http://surrealtalvi.wordpress.com/> Lovely watercolors inform the tale of a tender fox and raccoon who live to tell the tale contrary facets of a river they've got either been too scared to cross. each one has been instructed tales of trolls, witches, dragons, robbers, castles, and knights - the neighborhood gossip of ways frightening the opposite aspect of the river can be. while a log falls around the river, they every one get to discover every one other's region and study the reality at the back of the gossip. We loved interpreting this jointly - the language was once basic yet now not simplistic and the paintings supported the story. I hold this a four rather than five famous person as the paintings begins out with the animals jogging on four toes yet they set very anthropomorphic upright. It form of spoiled the What Lies on the Other Side? normal surroundings to determine them sitting at the log like a human instead of an animal.
